

HOW WILL A NEW HIGH SCHOOL IMPACT MY TAXES?

The proposed bond issue will be repaid over 25 years, and it would affect property taxes beginning with taxes payable in 2011. To determine the estimate impact of the proposed bond issue on your 2011 taxes, you need the following information:

1. Your 2010 proposed property tax statement which was mailed to you by Rock County in November of 2009; or
2. Your notice of valuation and classification which was mailed to you by Rock County in the spring of 2009.
3. The Property I.D. number(s) for all parcels that you own could also be very helpful.

IF YOU CANNOT FIND THIS INFORMATION CALL THE ROCK COUNTY AUDITOR'S OFFICE AT 283-5060 AND ASK FOR 2009 TAXABLE MARKET VALUE OF YOUR PROPERTY FOR PURPOSES OF TAXES PAYABLE IN 2010.

After you have this information, you have the following options:

1. You will be able to call toll free at 1-800-552-1171 between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. and ask to speak to any member of the Education Team. Tell Ehlers & Associates that you are calling about the tax impact of the Hills-Beaver Creek Schools referendum. They will assist you from there.
2. Send an e-mail message to mnschools@ehlers-inc.com. Include your full name, a daytime phone number and the property I.D. number(s) for all parcels of property you own within the school district.
3. Log on to the Hills-Beaver Creek website at www.hbcpatriots.com for a link to the property tax information site. This link, which will be available February 4, will allow you to access all information regarding the impact to your taxes regarding the proposed high school.
